SERVSAFE® FOOD SAFETY EMPLOYEE LEVEL COURSE

Everyone on your Staff can have the Gift of Knowledge

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the ServSafe® Food Safety Employee Level Course?

The ServSafe® Food Safety Employee Level Course is a four hour onsite course designed to provide food service workers with a basic knowledge of food safety best practices.

Who should take the ServSafe® Food Safety Employee Level Course?

All non-managerial food service staff. This course will provide your staff with basic Principles of food safety, designed for food handlers with no certification.

How long does the certification last?

This course does not provide certification, and does not meet the new state requirement for a Certified Food Safety Manager (CFSM). However, each student will receive a certificate of completion.

Why do I need this course?

It is imperative that all food service workers have a basic knowledge and understanding of serving and preparing food safely.

What material do I receive with the course?

Each course participant will receive the ServSafe® Starters Guide. This booklet is the perfect training tool that gives managers an effective way to share key food safety concepts with hourly staff. Streamlined content enhances learning comprehension, while activities, exercises and quizzes reinforce lessons. It includes updates to the 2005 FDA Food Code and a certificate of completion to recognize participation in food safety training. This information is a valuable post-training reference.
