

Addressing the diverse health care needs of the hospitality industry.

UnitedHealthcare works with the National Restaurant Association (NRA) and the Georgia Restaurant Association (GRA) in a strategic alliance, offering exclusive health care pricing and solutions for every size NRA/GRA member business — including small, midsize and large employers.

4 ways NRA/GRA member businesses can access UnitedHealthcare’s exclusive offerings:

- 1 For small businesses: New Restaurant & Hospitality Association Benefit Trust option for fully insured hospitality groups with 2-99 eligible employees.
- 2 For businesses with 51 or more employees: Up to a 5 percent discount on manual medical rates for fully insured groups with 51 or more eligible employees.
- 3 For large self-funded businesses: An annual invoice credit of up to 5 percent on administrative fees for new ASO medical products for self-funded groups with 100 or more eligible employees.
- 4 For businesses of all sizes: Up to a 5 percent discount on specialty benefits products (dental, vision, life, disability, accident and critical illness) for fully insured groups — in addition to all other discounts including bundling benefits programs.

New Restaurant & Hospitality Association Benefit Trust option for small employers.

The new Restaurant & Hospitality Association Benefit Trust is now available to quote as an option for NRA/GRA hospitality member groups. The RH Association Benefit Trust is a new health benefits solution insured and serviced by UnitedHealthcare and focused on small employers with 2-99 eligible employees. This solution can offer NRA/GRA members some of the same advantages of large employers regarding more health plan designs for product and potential pricing flexibility. Available nationally, the new RH Association Benefit Trust features a product portfolio with more than 120 health plan designs. It is just one more way for hospitality businesses to access UnitedHealthcare's solutions for NRA/GRA members.

Health care reform guidance and solutions

Amid the ever-changing health care regulatory environment, UnitedHealthcare also helps provide NRA/GRA members with the latest health reform facts, guidance and solutions to navigate potential changes and opportunities. One of its main goals is to offer easier access to cost-effective health care coverage and related products and services to NRA/GRA members, while helping them comply with state and federal regulations.

Wellness programs and services

UnitedHealthcare has a variety of wellness programs and services aimed at Helping people live healthier lives®. Several clinical and wellness programs are embedded with most medical plans — such as decision support, care management, complex-condition management and health improvement programs. Plus, all members receive access to a member website that includes dozens of tools and resources to help them understand, improve and maintain their health.
